ARE PARENTS PICKLES?

By Hal E. Roach. /

A girl, fond of music, has purchased a trombone and soon has the neighbors in a panic. Enters our hero, selling fire extinguishers - but father being a busy man has a host of secretaries who block the way to the salesman. Being resourceful, the salesman re-enters and by flashing lodge buttons and insignia finally reaches his victim, but not until many laughable incidents occur. Needless to say, he makes a sale and wins the girl.
